IMPLEMENTATION OF TEACHER TRAINING POLICY

Miri Piri Khalsa College, Bhadaur recognizes that continuous professional development of teachers is essential for enhancing teaching effectiveness and maintaining academic excellence. The Institution has implemented a Teacher Training Policy to support the continuous growth of faculty members and to improve the overall quality of the teaching–learning process.

Objectives of the Policy

- To strengthen subject knowledge and pedagogical skills of faculty members.
- To promote innovative teaching methods and effective classroom practices.
- To encourage continuous learning and professional development.
- To enhance student learning outcomes through improved teaching quality.

Implementation of the Policy

Faculty members are encouraged to participate in faculty development programmes, workshops, seminars, conferences, refresher courses, and orientation programmes conducted by recognized institutions.

Teachers are motivated to undertake online courses, webinars, and skill enhancement programmes for updating academic and professional competencies.

Training related to pedagogy, curriculum development, research, assessment methods, and emerging trends in education is actively supported.

Faculty members share knowledge and best practices gained from training programs through departmental meetings and internal academic interactions.

Monitoring and Support

Ref. No:MPKC/2025-2026/579 Dated. 26/12/2025

The implementation of the Teacher Training Policy is regularly reviewed by the Institution to ensure effective participation and meaningful outcomes. Necessary academic support and encouragement are provided for continuous faculty development.

Conclusion

The implementation of the Teacher Training Policy at Miri Piri Khalsa College, Bhadaur demonstrates the Institution's commitment to faculty empowerment, quality teaching, and continuous academic improvement.
