CERTIFICATE

Miri Piri Khalsa College, Bhadaur has implemented a mandatory internship policy for students in alignment with the provisions of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. The policy aims to integrate practical exposure with academic learning and to enhance students' professional competence and employability.

Students are encouraged to complete internships during the prescribed academic period with suitable organizations relevant to their field of study. The institution provides guidance and support to students for internship opportunities and evaluation. The internship experience helps students gain hands-on experience, develop workplace skills, and understand real-world professional practices.
